Representative DelGobbo Re-elected as United Way President

State Representative Kevin M. DelGobbo has been re-elected as president of the United Way of Naugatuck and Beacon Falls.

Rep. DelGobbo, R-Naugatuck, was re-elected for another term at the United Way's Annual Meeting Thursday, February 21, 2008. He also was re-elected to the organization's Board of Directors.

"I'm very excited to once again be among a great group of volunteers who help lead this vital community organization," Representative DelGobbo said.

"This past year, the United Way exceeded its $420,000 fund-raising goal, the proceeds of which will be used to support a wide range of programs and services in our communities," Representative DelGobbo said.
